THE CHRONICLE

Printed Weekly on a dauble-medium sheet ever Friday morning, by NEBLETT & GRANT, Publishers and Proprietors.

TERMS OF THE PAPER,

$2 Per arnum, in advance

TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

MISCELLANY.

The Ranchero's Daughter;

A TALE OF BUENA VISTA AND IT HORRORS.

BY LIEUT. H., OF TENNESSEE.

Monterey had fallen before the genius of a Taylor and a Worth, both of whom, by thousands mourned, now fill honored graves-fallen before the arms of those cent, demanded what we wanted. who knew no fear, while their country's dear flag spread its broad folds amid the bing and murdering Ranchero, and his glare and smoke of battle. We had lost band of cut-throats!' replied the officer. many dear and cherished friends, but they ful field whereon Taylor soon after won a tion. fame which will never die, and fought the most desperate battle on modern record me by telling where he is!" against odds of six to one.

advance on the Capital via the Saltillo girl. route, we were already reveling, in imagimounted, and accompany a detachment of the officer. flower, and taking a westerly course, gui- ced with loop-holes for musketry. ded by a Mexican, whose treachery to an Till bet a month's pay that the old fox with your personal property.' tainous range westward of us. The moun- sent!" our guide said we must pass. Here we that he might be mistaken. were obliged to send out scouts, and ad- Dismount, a dozen or two of you, and you have performed. vance more slowly and with greater cau- try that gate!' cried the officer. avail, since they could show but a narrow horse dead under him. mounted Mexican ahead of us, who seemed them was bullet-proof.

tried in vain to get him in range. through the hills some five hours, we came held a hurried consultation. If we had abrubtly to the entrance of one of the most only had a field piece with us, we would It was on the twenty-third day of Feb. the usual appropriation bills to pass, which beautiful little vallys, or rather basins, that have soon settled the matter, for the house ruary, IS47. For two days the hostile ar- Mr. Buchavan will not sign in a hurry.

Ranchero, lives there.'

hurriedly drove the horses and eattle into time to avoid this, and the next instant the led troops, who, without fires, had slept all cans be installed in their rightful places, a high picketed enclosure which seemed to eattle and horses upon which several large the long picket upon their own soil." a high picketed enclosure which seemed to cattle and horses, upon which several large the long night upon their arms, ate their fore we get that place, Licutenant,' said bellowing in terror, and causing a stampede barvesting of death. And when the first unanimous consent of the Committee on the dragoon officer to me, as he carefully of our own horses, in spite of the efforts gun announced the ball opened—then, the bill to make uniform the exercise of the place through his field also scanned the place through his field glass, of the guard to hold them. and handed the telescope to me.

reply, as my eye ran over its defensible successful! muttered the lieutenant, as he be conquered! position and noted its strength.

Well, the sooner we are at it the better the yard was clear.

gentle slope upon which the buildings in a moment, close under the walls of the tering steel. Smoke and blackness obground, closely together. It was not so An entrance was forced, and we were at it, roll on-through the long watches of the exception, were mere outbuildings, and not ro's daughter, whose voice, clear as a bugle, the devoted ranks under old Rough and high towers, and evidently the residence In reply to a summons from our leader to Yell-how gellent Lincoln, friend of more of the Ranchero, was strong and evidently surrender, she sent a pistal ball through than one campaign, died-how McKee, $4.50 of the Kanchero, was strong and evidently surrender, she sent a pistal ball through than one campaign, died—how McKee, 5.00 capable, if well garrisoned, of offering a his sword arm, and the next instant dis-Zabriskie, and a hundred other gallant 15,00 stubborn resistance. But we, who had patched a like compliment to me, which spirits perished, sword in hand. This has stormed Monterey, thought light of such grazed my right temple.

but upon its repetition, a young and singu- hour's work, you'll rue the day!'

'We are after Ramon Canovas, the rob-

'My father is neither a robber nor died as MEN should die, and we gave them murderer-he hates his country's foes, and fires of the bivouac, with plenty of meat muzzle! soldier burial, dropped a silent tear upon so does Hagarita, his daughter!' responded and aquadiente, soon forgot the hardships They reel like a forest stricken by a of our nature when he said: their grave, and swore to avenge their the girl, and, as she spoke, she drew her and perils of the day. tall and elegant form up haughtily, while And we had advanced toward that fear- her black eyes flashed forth her indigna-

'If you are his daughter, you will oblige

'If I knew I would not-if I would I The armistice concluded at Monterey could not. It is enough for you to know were thrown out to prevent a surprise, and ister sweeps down rank after rank of the was over, and supposing that we were to that he is not here!' replied the spirited then those who could, sought the arms of coming foe. Death's scythe sweeps away

'Seeing is believing, fair lady. You nation, in the Halls of the Montezumas. | will favor me by having this gate opened

U. S. dragoons, under another officer, on I shall not unbar the gate, and if you then our leader had the lady brought bean expedition, the object of which was the force it it will be at your peril. I am not fore him. capture of a celebrated Ranchero chieftan alone, and I will protect my father's prop and his band, who had been annoying much erty so long as there is a man left to fire a in attacks upon our provision and ammuni- gun, or a drep of blood in my veins!' she your father has done with us; but I was tion trains. We set out at an early hour, cried, as she retired from sight into one of not ordered to detain or injure a woman. while yet the dew lay bright on bud and the towers, which we perceived to be pier. Select any attendants you desire, choose naintance and friend had been bought is in his den!' said the officer. 'The girl men in a pass so narrow, could make fearful havor upon an advancing party, whose numbers, however great, would be of little men in a hurry, and dropped the officer's speed, leaving behind her a blazing home and ruined fields. We returned to camp with our booty, and made our report. But

June? I think Yes. There is a vast deal our scouts had observed a splendidly- and were so thick, that a shelter behind the provisions were a greateful and timely tariff till we have a new House, unless Mr.

It was almost night when, after winding them, and then the lieutenant and myself heat of from 95 to 100. could not have withstood even the batter- mies of the United States and Mexico-'La Balsa de Flores!'-the Bag of Flow- ing of a six or nine pounder. But this we the one a small but heroic band, the other ers-said our guide, as he pointed to it. had not, and our only object was to capture a vaunting, boasting host-had been frontcattle were grazing, the guide said: column was formed of the rest of our forces, would astonish a wondering world. and ferocious dogs had been let loose, came hasty meal from their haversacks, and Supprage in the Territories. On I shouldn't wonder if we had work be- rushing through the gateway, snorting and then were drawn up ready for the fearful the 10th inst., Gen. Zollicoffer, with the

'A pretty manouvre, Miss Canovas, to tudinous foe that there were those before tories of the United States, confining the 'I should wonder if we didn't!' was my throw my men in disorder, but not quite them who could die, but who never could the same to born and naturalized citizens.

-thank God wa've a bright meon to work It was not long that we had to wait for upon the bulwark of American breasts, it was then referred unanimous in favor by !' he answered, and then gave the order this, and then, with a regular American but broken and shattered, like great surges of it. We trust it will be taken up and All the passions are good, without excepthis, and then, with a regular American but broken and shattered, like great surges passed into a law before the session closes. We shall not, thereafter, have sliens vo-through which we passed, and rising the the fire, and all who were not hurt, were, sun on unsulfied plume and flag-on glitstrong picket fence before mentioned, which | An attack upon the barred door was made, and musketry. consisted of heavy posts sunk deeply in the which soon resulted as did that at the gate. And yet, like the untiring surges, which high, however, but that we could see the hand to hand, in a few seconds, with about storm, that desperate army, fighting upon buildings inside. All of these, with one twenty Mexicans, headed by the Ranche- its own soil, swept in with its reserves upon calculated for defence. But the central rung loud above the din of the conflict, as Ready.' But it is not for me to describe building, flanked at either corner with she urged her people to fight to the last, that fight-bow fell Hardin, Clay, and

But we were too many for them, and in But it was my lot, just after that last were put under guard, and the lady was amid the iron shower, urging them on .- The only point where human bliss stands still, also requested to remain in her chamber, By heavens! 'tis a woman! over which a sentinel was placed, but as- They rally-again the tide of war rolls a soldier's best friend-gentle sleep.

'He'll whiten them with Yankee bones! was her equally bitter answer.

destroy the fields by fire and steel, and bears his dying mistress into our lines.

'I am sorry, Senora,' said he, 'that my orders were to burn and destry, even as your horses, and depart whither you choose, for a few doubloons, rode towards a mounwouldn't be so bold if her father was absorrow!' said she disdainfully. 'I ask no der date of the 12th, says: attendant-they are all cowards, or they tains did not seem far distant when we star- I remembered how I had seen women would have fought while life lasted. But ted, yet it was high noon before we reach- fight by the side of their husbands, broth- I will take my horse, and with him speed regard to the contracts about which there ed the first gorge or defile, through which ers, and lovers, at Monterey, and thought in search of a father who will hasten to has been so much talk, that was not begive you a crimson receipt for the labor forchand approved by the Administration.

there was a look of dissatisfaction on our to do; but there is a good deal of dead front in action. But we were not attack-ed, and nothing of note occurred, although quick, was the cry, for they stood so close, we had not met Ramon Canovas, although remainder there will be no received. supply in the camp. Fat pork will do very Buchanan recommends it; the splendid to be watching our movements; but they The men hurriedly obeyed the last order, well in a region of eternal snow, but it is programme of annulling the Clayton-Bul-

then arose a cheer, which told the multi- the right of suffrage in the several Terri chance to nip at the tall grass and grain we sprung on, without stopping to return air pure and clear; no longer shone the stood, we were brought to a halt by the house, which we instantly surrounded .- sourcd all, except the red flash of artillery been done by far abler pens than mine.

Finding the gate of this enclosure shut, a few seconds, her people were all slain or fatal charge, where the first named officer the dragoon officer, who as a regular and overpowered, though she was spared-but fell, and the ravine, through which the my senior, was in command, hailed the secured-and the victory was ours. But mould was almost cheked with their dead house, although we could see nothing liv- capture did not quell her haughty spirit, and dying followers, to be near our noble ing about it execut the herd of horses and Beware of Ramon Canovas, Yankee General, when the enemy made his last cattle. His first hail met with no response, dogs !' she cried. 'When HE hears of this desperate charge, which, had it been successful, would have utterly annihilated our larly beautiful girl came out upon the flat 'He'll find nothing but blackened walls army. But Bragg, glory-covered Bragg, roof of the house, dressed in the picture- and ruined fields when he returns!' said galloped his battery into position-his sque costume of her nation, and in very the dragoon officer, bitterly, as he had his chief was on him—'A little more grape'

Even in the happlest choice, where fav'ring heav grape chief was on him—'A little more grape'

Think not, the husband gain'd, that all is done; was added—the enemy was so close, that The prize of happiness must still be wonthe panting of his pressed chargers could And, oft, the careless find it to their cost, Our wounded were now attended to, the be heard—and then pealed the deafening The lover in the husband may be lost; dead buried, and then beeves were driven thunder of those six guns, then rolled out in and slaughtered; and the men, over the an hundred iron deaths from every brazen

The Mexican men who had surrendered rider in their very front, riding to and fro Virtue alone is happiness below;

sured that she should not be restrained of on, led by the dauntless herione. Once her freedom in the morning. Sentinels more the fearful shower of grape and canwide swaths of victims. Again the foe is When morning came, a party was sent checked-the Amazonian leader bows forout to collect the horses and cattle for ward in her saddle, and as the few who One morning I received an order from I have my orders, and must obey them, no army use, the prisoners were mustered and yet live in that devoted column, fly in wild nures depends on the differences of salts my commanding officer to take thirty men, matter how unpleasant they may be !' said mounted for a march, a party entailed to confusion, her coal black steed, in terror,

> The horse is stopped-she is lifted from the saddle-but a fierce glare is in her eye -a curse, a bitter curse is on her lipsshe dies-and HAGARITA, the Ranchero's Daughter, is no more.

tories would have been dearly bought.

SECRETARY FLOYD-WASHINGTON MAT-Execute your orders and spare your TERS .- The correspondent of the Philadel-

The effort to make the Secretary a scape-Words could not be bandied with a lady, and fearless man, and will not permit him-poned; there will be no revision of the dragging their disabled companions with not the ration for men sweating under a must be kept up and paid for, &c. But them, and then the lieutenant and myself heat of from 95 to 100. sis will reject Lecompton, and there are Still, I think Congress will adjourn in

A PREDICTION .- The Baltimore Clippe It was indeed a flowery place. Fertile the enemy, or destroy them with as little ing each other. On the day previous, that makes this prediction, which we think is meadows, fields of grain, groves of orange loss on our own side as possible. Some of the DAY of days, auniversarial of His birth, to predict that by the time this Kansas and of lemon, were spread before us. The men who had heavy hatchets were now who was first in war, first in peace, and first business shall have been finally settled, crimson cactus, and a thousand other flow- ordered to cut away at the gate, while oth- last, and FOREVER in the hearts of all true the President will wish that he had adherers met the eye. Every tree was laden ers pried aside the pickets, and begun a Americans, the armies had been warmly ed to the instructions which he gave to scattering fire at the loop-holes in the tow- engaged, but night had drawn a veil be. Governor Walker. He has raised a stick Pointing to a building, or rather a group ers, but probably not doing much damage. tween them, and they rested. But with break his own head. This ordinance, of buildings, about a mile or a little more from us, on a rising slope at the far side of the valley, near which many horses and ing left to hold the horses, a storming as a bribe-but the moment the territor; shall be admitted into the Union a new 'That is the place. Ramon Canovas, the ready to make a rush as soon as the gate And over the field, the sun threw its constitution will be adopted, and all the was thrown open. When all was ready, rays from a cloudless sky; bayonet and manocuvering of the wire-workers in Wash-The 'solitary horseman' who had been the gate was thrust back, and we were on gun-barrel, burnished sabre and glittering ington will fall to the ground-and down watching our movements, was now observthe point of making a dash foward, when lancehead, threw back their bright reflection, while fluttering pennons, waving is opening upon the country—an era of banners, and dancing plumes bissed by and while we were forming column after cattle inside the corral, indicated the dan-our straggling ride through the rocky de-ger of a stampede which would inevitably the morning's gentle breeze, added to the files, we observed that a party of vaqueros disarrange our front. We drew back in gorgeous beauty of the scene. The chil-foreign influence crushed out, and Ameri throw my men in disorder, but not quite them who could also but who accessful! mattered the licutenant, as he gave orders to prepare to charge the instant. The enemy then opened; wave on wave of his choicest troops were rolled forward gratified to find the Committee to which

MY MOTHER DEAR.

There was a place in childhood, That I remember well;
And there a voice of awestest tone Bright fairy fales did tell, And gentle words, and fond embrace Were given with joy to me,

When I was in that happy place Upon my mather's ruse. My mother dear, my mother dear, My gentle, gentle mother. When fairy tales were ended, "Good night," she seftly said,

And kissed and laid me down to sleep Within my tiny bed : And holy words she taught me there, Methinks I yet can see Her angel eyes as close I knelt idee my mother's knee, &c.

In the sickness of my childhood, The perils of my prime, The sorrows of my riper years, The cares of every time ; When doubt or danger weighed me down Then pleading all for me, It was a fervent prayer to Heaven That beut my mother's knee, &c.

MARRIAGE.

The Craces might, alone, his heart allure; They and the Virtues, meeting, must secure.

The poet spoke to the best feeling gale—they are checked—see that dashing Know, then, this truth—enough for man to know, The freshness of life is all worn off, the handkerchief!" And tastes the good without a fall to til; Where only virtue sure reward receives Alike in what it takes and what it gives.

> SOME FACTS IN AGRICULTURAL SCIENCE.

> Whatever will produce mould-that water carbon and salts-forms manure. The great difference in the action of ma they contain.

Mould is active in proportion as it more or less dissolved by water.

Some substances render mould easily dissolvable in water, and mould, being valuable in proportion to the ease with which it is dissolved, whatever enables it Had the Mexican men passessed one to dissolve may be added to it, and will half the courage of their women, our vie- increase its value. These substances are the alkalies, and alkaline earth.

The property of producing a substance to a bushel of wheat.

magnesia, iron, manganese, and silex, pot-

When plants decay they return to the uble. It is valued in proportion as it is soluble Artificial manure is the salts, or a mixture of natural manure and salts.

chlorine as muriatic acid. Potash and grease make soft soap. Soda and grease make hard soap. Ammonia and oil make what is called one of hydrogen, forms water.

olatile liniment.

Oxygen combined with carbon, in proportion of two of oxygen to one of carbon orms carbonic acid. Five parts oxygen to one of phosphoous form phosphoric acid. Oxygen and hydrogen in plants exist in just the proportion to form water.

Decay is slow combustion, and gives the and women—the farmer—the mechanic—same products as fire. It is the union of the oxygen of the air with the carbon of the House of Representatives in regard to circles" in the order of nature, whatever the Doorkeeper, Mr. Hackney, levying black mail upon the Assistant Doorkeepers and Pages.

nittee will finish this officer. He has worked carefully to conceal the facts, and the employees are threated withdismissed if they make any revelations. but honesty and truth are likely to gov- the architect of their own fortunes. Some DEMOCRATIC REVOLUTION IN SPAIN .-According to a Madrid correspondent of the New York Tribune, a Democratic rev- abosolutely the very highest. If there is which is to establish a republican govern- properly be denominated low, it is those brag of the size of their babies, but they ment.

Every person is proud. Pride is an element of our nature. We could not live without it; we should even be worthless. tion-it is excess that makes them evil, Rapidly we rode through the beautiful came from the towers and two upper winrecoiled, in broken fragments, on those ting in our Torritories and laying the and the best of them are as bad as the valley, not giving our tired horses a coveted dows. Several of our men dropped, but which they followed. No longer was the foundations of States.—Nash. Patriot. WOMAN'S RIGHTS.

Much is said and written now-a-days of woman's rights. What then are her rights? This is not only just, but expedient to giveher. Man defrauds himself when be with. Mr. Jones and Miss Brown were at an eve holds it. For is not woman to be his constant companion? Would be choose that his companion should be destitute of ideas? all at once he took his sent and became Surely not. The conversation of an edu-cated woman is purpotual feast. If the No persuasion or remonstrance from his feat alcourse of life is estimated the season of the season of life is estimated to the life is estimated to the life is estimated to the season of life is estimated to the life is es first pleasure of life is action, the second or give any reason for his strange conduct certainly is talk; there is almost as much from that time till the party broke up; pleasure in talking about things as in do- but being rather eccentric at fimes, ing them. A man wants in a wife not on-ly a companion, but a councellor. No one thought no more of it. mind ever saw all sides of all subjects, nor The time at length arrived to disp all sides of one subject. And the wisest suggestions not frequently come from the least informed. The Pytheness, Syblis, were women, because women were always supposed to enjoy a nearer access to the fountain of wisdom than man.

thing that is nearly right.—When they marry they have a right that their husbands shall be men and not mere wrecks of debauchery and dissipation. Oh, it is one of the cruelest of wrongs for a pure and innocent girl to throw herself away upon a broken dewn victim of licentiousness, who is more fit for a hospital than to preside over a family, the candidate for premature decay and early death. The mind and moral nature generally in such cases is quite as much a wreak as the hody.

Jones had obtained Miss Brown's hand-kerchief, and she had forgotten it until now. She now asked him for it, and he refused to give it up. She coaxed him for some time, and still he refused. Soon however, she saw (as she supposed,) one corner of it protrading from his pocket behind and grasped it, and being somewhat out of patience with him for keeping it so long, she managed to cling to it, in spite of all his exertions to the contrary, till finally, finding he could not loose her grip, he exclaimed in the heat of his exertion—

For Heaven's sake, Miss Brown's hand-kerchief, and she had forgotten it until now. She now asked him for it, and he refused to give it up. She coaxed him for some time, and still he refused. Soon however, she saw (as she supposed,) one corner of it protrading from his pocket behind and grasped it, and being somewhat out of patience with him for keeping it so long, she managed to cling to it, in spite of all his exertions to the contrary, till finally, finding he could not loose her grip, he exclaimed in the heat of his exertion. cases is quite as much a wreak as the body. 'For Heaven's sake, Miss Brown, let gray gayety of innocence is forever gone. The The secret was out-his exertions in the

and he ought to find his happiness there. Perhaps there was't some shouts laughter about this time, and then agr If he does not, there is something wrong all right. If he wanders away heedlessly something is apt to go wrong. His au- A JOKE OF THE FIRST WATER .-- In thority is often wanted to maintain order, Hamilton, a few days since, a crazy wom phia Press writing from Washington under date of the 12th, says:

"There has been nothing done by Secretary Floyd, of the War Department, in regard to the contracts about which there has been so much talk, that was not besometimes got a glimpse of these apart-ments, and whom did we see there? Hus-ual sally, and walked off with their bur-The constituents of plants are, oxygen, ments, and whom did we see there? Husden, re nitrogen, and chlorine gases, lime, clay, magnesia, iron, manganese, and silex, pottion, for huge precipices overhung the ravine on either hand, and a few resolute their horses and approached the gate. And was saddled, and she rode off alone at full out of the Cabinet, headed by those who have been misleading the President from have been misleading the President from metals; the last three are called combusti-their morals, make themselves odious and ash and soda, phosphorus, sulphur and daily wages, spending one-half or perhaps carbon. The first four are called gases; all their earnings in liquid poison, to ruin loathsome vagabonds, while their wives "Who was the first man recorded in his earth the above elements, and form what is called mould or natural manure.

are at home carning, by the slender gains tory who didn't pay?" said Mathews, as he is called mould or natural manure. Mould is of two kinds, soluble and insol-ble. It is valued in proportion as it is oluble.

Oh! this is too bad to be seen and suffered course, said Matthews: "Did not his in a Christian country.

This outrage upon woman's rights cries loudest of all to heaven, and if there were A year of pleasure passes like a floating The salts contain the sulphur, phospho- loudest of all to heaven, and if there were A year of pleasure passes like a floation and carbon, as sulphuric acid, phosphoric acid, and carbonic acid, and the days, this is the first abuse in our social an rge of pain. conomy which would be abated. Tell me not of barbarism of the Malays or the Fejee Islanders, who roast their enemies and est and of all! Our boasted civilization and Christianity of the ninteenth century -what are they? - Baltimore Sun.

THE LOWER CLASS.

Who are they; asks a cotemporary .-The toiling millions-the laboring men the artizen-the inventor-the producer? Far from it. These are nature's nobility -God's favorites-the salt of the earth! A special dispatch to the New York Ex- No matter whether they are high or low in station, rich or poor in pelf, conspicuous "A development has just been made in or humble in position, they are the "upper able or unfashionable decree. It is not humming that tune?, The facts have gone to the Special Comlow, it is the highest duty, privilege and "Because it hannts me," was the reply.

"No wonder," answered Foote, "you are pleasure, for the great man and the whole- forever murdering it. souled woman to earn what they possess to work their own way through life-to be may rank the classes we have alluded to as only relatively low; and, in fact, the middling olasses. We insist they are dution is at hand in Spain, the success of a class of human beings on earth who may An editor out in Iowa says they don't who spend without producing, who dissipate on the carnings of their fathers or rela AREA OF KANSAY. - Kansas contains in aid of themselves.

> We are all mariners on this sea of life, And they who climb above us up the shroud, Pave only in their overtopping place,

Gained a more dengerous station and foother

Wit and Gumor.

THE UNLUCKY SHIRT TAIL.

conlike appearance, whom she was at g

Women have a right to good husbands, because the most of them mean to do the thing that is nearly right.—When they Jones had obtained Miss Brown's hand life of such a man is cold and hard, destitute of sentiment and enthusiasm. Women is cruelly wronged when she has accepted such a companion.

Woman has a right to the society of her husband. Home should be his sanctuary,

Perhaps there was out—his exertions in the early part of the evening had been too much for his pantaloons, and produced a rent sufficiently large to admit the escape of that which Miss Brown had mistaken for her handkerchief, and to prevent the exposure of which, had kept him so still during the latter part of the evening.

Perhaps there was to some shouls of

He has promised to be the house-band—the band that keeps the houshold togeththe band that keeps the houshold together. His presence there is necessary to with the company of the young dear thority is often wanted to maintain order, to arrange business, to superintend labor. His absence ought to be as few and unfrequent as possible. Woman has a right to this, and her rights are grossly violated when her husband is often unnecessarily away.

Lastly, women have a right to the earnings of their husbands for the support of her self into the arms of her four custodibrothers put him in the pit for nothing?

"Great wit and mudness sure are near silled And narrow bounds their reals divine."

LIEUTENANT MAURY has received from the Archduke Ferdinand of Austria, the pick their bones. Their enemies expect it, and would do the like in return. But great gold medal for art and science, awar-Oxygen and hydrogen gas, combined in the proportion of eight parts oxygen and by a friend—the one who ought to be nearesty, the Emperor of Austria.

NOT TO BE READ BY SCOTCHMEN.

Cain in diagrace with Heaven, retired to Nad, A place, undoubtedly, as far from God [went As Cain could wish: which makes some think he As far as Scotland ere he pitched his tent, And there a city built of ancient fame, Which he from Eden, Edinburg did name-

"I ain't going to be called printer's dev il any longer-no more I ain tl' exclaime our fillibuster the other day in a terrible Well, what shall we call you, hay?

"Why, call me a typographical spirit o Foote oncod asked a man without a sense

Always doubt the sincerity of a girl when you a c her wipe her mouth after you kiss her.

The world is a treadmill which turns all the time, and leaves us no choice but to sink or to climb.

ives without learning or doing anything 136,000 square miles, or an area 1,900 square miles greater than that of all the New England States, New York and New

The hardest situation for a grumbler to be in, is to feel like grumbling, and to have nothing to grumble at.